Projects

Our projects, always with a research component, are designed to:

- To discover the upcoming software and hardware needs of Auroville.
- Create a group that can support those needs.
- Investigate possible software solutions to those needs.
- Build knowledge within the community to install, configure, and maintain the software.