

Lumeter

Lumeter is a California based start-up, developing an end to end solution for the distribution of locally produced pre-paid electricity in remote areas, villages, etc.

Please refer to the website for more details.

Blue Light's involvement

Blue Light is participating in the development of the backend server, business flow processing, including the interface to SMS based payment gateways.

The software stack consists on Python and Cherrypy.